

About the Ugo

Ugo is a peer reviewed research journal devoted to the promotion of excellence in high-quality empirical researches and strong conceptual papers. Significant gaps remain in the understanding and awareness of the Igbo culture, language, literature, humanities, sciences and a lot more about the Igbo. Ugo publishes scholarly articles in the broad areas of language, literature, culture, arts, humanities, education, and sciences.

It is a platform meant to research the collective interest of Igbo people and at the same time serve as the nexus of Igbo scholars and professionals of different disciplines in Nigeria and in the Diaspora to provide an intellectual meeting point for scholars and researchers to interact and answer questions surrounding Igbo identity and wellbeing, in order to explore and reconcile with the reality and add value to our society. This, we hope, will expand the intellectual horizon of students, lecturers, academics and Igbo people at large, thereby providing broad-based, people-oriented and self-reliant education.

Subscribers are encouraged to write in any Nigerian language, English, French, German, Russian or Chinese but the paper must have Igbo content.
